APEX PARK AND REC NEWS

The Winter/Spring Activities Guide is out and registrations are in progress for classes. Youth tennis lessons fill up quickly, so encourage those interested in participating to register soon.

Along with that, if you have considered teaching tennis to youth or adults or would consider supporting instructional staff or coaches, I would be interested in talking with you. Currently, I am assisting with a monthly middle school program to bring tennis to the schools, and would like to start a middle school program at the Tennis Center in the spring and fall. No great skills are needed - just a passion for the game of tennis, enjoyment working with youth, and organizational abilities. This year I also plan on changing the May Block Party format and am looking for help with this annual event. In addition, Ralston Valley is also looking for a junior varsity coach. All coaching related expenses would be paid and there is a slight chance of a small salary.

The CTA is looking for someone willing to be a volunteer coordinator for the Racquets For All program, to cover the west metro area. This program brings equipment to individuals and programs to grow tennis. The tennis center will become a collection point, but a coordinator is needed before the program can begin.

Pickleball is another new program that I am trying to get started both inside and out. Pickleball combines the skills of badminton and tennis, and is played on a smaller court. The game is popular on both coasts, the mid-west, is part of the Senior Olympics, is all the rage in snowbird communities, and has been discussed on National Public Radio. A great way to maintain tennis skills throughout the year!

So, as you can see, the off-season is busy with planning and activities to grow the tennis program and provide outreach to the community. As the holiday season approaches, ask yourself how you can give back to the sport that has provided us all with so much. Please give me a call at the Tennis Center or by emailing me at: michelec@apexprd.org. Have a joyous holiday season with friends and family, and good health in 2009.

See you on the courts. Michele
